

Success Insights Interviewing Insights—General & Sales Report

Targeting Talent

Finding the right talent for specific jobs is not just desirable, but ESSENTIAL to business success. Tools that add value to the hiring process are increasingly popular with human resource professionals, managers and owners. Much valuable time can be wasted in needlessly interviewing prospective employees whose talents and not suited to job openings.

Curbing Turnover Costs

The cost of employee turnover can no longer be ignored and are widely advertised as being from 3 to 9 times annual salary—depending on the job level and experience of departing employees. Replacing talent quickly and accurately will effectively stop and drain on a company's resources.
